

Recreation Program Facilitator

Work Environment

The Independent Living Resource Centre (ILRC) Thunder Bay is a cross-disability, non-clinical/non-medical non-profit organization located in Thunder Bay. We provide a rich and diverse programming that is primarily self-directed by the participants of the programming.

We are currently recruiting an energetic, creative and genuine person to facilitate all aspects of our Recreation Programming. The successful applicant will develop, implement and facilitate recreation programming for persons with disabilities visiting our Centre. Recreation programming at IRLC Thunder Bay currently combines exciting workshops in a variety of areas, such as arts and crafts, fitness, cooking, and much more and our Connectors Program each Wednesday. There are a variety of ways that the successful applicant will enrich this programming with their own creativity and ideas with the support and guidance of the entire ILRC staff.
